A NEW SWINDLE.—Charles Gordon, alias Gartan, the reputed keeper of an intelligence office in the basement of No. 28 Amity street, a few days since, inserted in the German papers the following advertisement:
"Wanted, one hundred healthy men, to work on a settlement in South Carolina. Free passage, and two dollars and fifty cents per day. A good chance for late emigrants. Agreements made from 8 to 4 o'clock, at No. 28 Amity street, basement."

A large number of young men, most of whom were newly arrived emigrants, attracted by the advertisement, called on Gordon, and were informed by him that on the payment of one dollar and fifty cents each, they would be furnished a free passage in the steamship Quaker City to Charleston, South Carolina, where employment would be guaranteed them at the rates mentioned in the advertisement.

In most cases, the money was unhesitatingly paid over, and since that time the office has been besieged by the victims, vainly asking why the steamer did not sail, and why they were not furnished with sailing tickets. Finally they became convinced that they had been swindled, and yesterday, on the complaint of Alfred Wentzel, residing at No. 96 Eldridge street, Gordon was arrested by Officer Berry, of the Fifteenth Precinct, and taken before Justice Dodge at the Jefferson Market Police Court, to answer the charge of obtaining money by false pretences.

About 150 of the victims of the swindler had collected in the court room, many of whom appeared as witnesses against him, and their invectives, applied to him in the choicest of German, were somewhat amusing to the spectators who had collected to hear particulars of this novel case.

The accused declared that he was not the proprietor of the place, merely the clerk; but, in spite of his protestations, the magistrate committed him for trial in default of $1,500 bail.

In addition to the complaints above stated, Mrs. Anna Bentley, who rented the accused his office and resides in the upper part of the house, charges him with stealing from her mathematical instruments, valued at $223, the property of her husband. On this charge, he was also committed in default of $1,500 bail.
